

completes its business today, it adjourn until the hour of 9:30 a.m. on Thursday, September 7. I further ask consent that on Thursday, immediately following the prayer, the Journal of proceedings be approved to date, the morning hour be deemed expired, the time for the two leaders be reserved for their use later in the day, and the Senate then resume debate on the Daschle motion regarding the Missouri River, with 10 minutes equally divided in the usual form prior to a vote on or in relation to the motion.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. BOND. When the Senate convenes at 9:30 a.m., there will be 10 minutes remaining for closing remarks with respect to the motion to strike the Missouri River provision contained in the energy and water appropriations bill. Immediately following that vote, a vote will occur on the motion to proceed to the China PNTR legislation. Therefore, two back-to-back votes will occur at approximately 9:40 a.m. Following those two votes, the Senate will consider the China PNTR bill. It is hoped that agreements can be reached on various amendments to the bill and, therefore, votes can be expected to occur throughout the day.

As a reminder, the filing deadline for all first-degree amendments to the energy and water appropriations bill was 6:30 this evening. As a further reminder, the Senate will continue to consider the China trade bill and the energy and water appropriations bill on a dual track for the remainder of the week, with votes expected throughout each day.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 9:30 A.M. TOMORROW

Mr. BOND. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I now ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 8:23 p.m., adjourned until Thursday, September 7, 2000, at 9:30 a.m.
